NEW CHURCH A CERTAINTY

The Methodists Have Succeeded in Locating the Necessary Funds.

The Trustees board of the Methodist church has made a canvass among the members and adherents of the society for contributions to build a new church which has resulted in the handsome sum of $825; one half to be paid on June 1st and the other half on or before the 1st of October. In addition to this the Epworth League of Christman Endeavor has assured the Board that they will try and raise $500 in one hundred $5 subscriptions, which no doubt can be realized if each of the sixty members of the League will contribute not less than $5. The Ladies Aid have assumed the responsibility of supplying all the furnishings, which however, they may not be able to do during the present year.

Notwithstanding this pleasing prospect there is a possibility of a debt of about $800, which is very undesirable. Therefore the committee appointed recommend that the time of payment be changed from the 1st of June and October to the 1st of September and November, which the Board hope, will enable many others who desire to contribute the opportunity. It is the desire and aim of the Board to have the building when dedicated for divine worship free of debt and now give the members, adherents and friends the opportunity of making this a possibility. The committee were not in favor in the meantime of expending a dollar on the old building, but that the Trustees board endeavor to find what can be realized for it.

A Farewell.

On Wednesday night a large number of friends of Messrs. Timmins and Neelands spent a social evening at the residence of Mr. G. M. Annable, High Street, to bid farewell to these gentlemen who leave on Monday for British Columbia. Owing to the agreeable way Mr. and Mrs. Annable have of entertaining, the evening seemed to pass away very quickly. Excellent music was contributed on the piano and refreshments were provided. Also the many games in the different rooms were not left long idle. About eleven o'clock Mr. Timmins and Mr. Neelands were given an opportunity of expressing themselves. After each had spoken at some length, Mr. R. G. Martin spoke on behalf of the Christian Endeavor Society. He said deep and sincere regret was felt by all the members of the society at the loss of these two gentlemen. "God be With You Till We Meet Again," led one to the conclusion that it was time to go home and the company dispersed after much handshaking.

Prizes to be Given Away.

The publishers of The Happy Home will give an elegant fine toned upright piano, valued at $350.00, absolutely free to the person sending them the largest list of words constructed from the letters contained in the name of their well-known publication, "The Happy Home."

Additional presents consisting of bicycles, gold watches, silver watches, sewing machines, music boxes, silk dresses, china dinner sets, and many valuable and useful articles, will also be awarded in order of merit, and every person sending not less than ten words will receive a present of value. Use either plural of singular words, but not both, and use no letter in the same word more times than it appears in the text, "The Happy Home."

This is a popular plan of introducing into new homes this popular publication, which has in its three years existence received a happy welcome into many thousands of homes.

As the object in giving away these valuable presents is to advertise and attract attention to The Happy Home, which is a handsomely illustrated monthly publication devoted to literature, fashion, stories and art, every list of words must be accompanied with three three-cent stamps (nine cents) for a trial copy of this favorite home journal containing full particulars, list of presents and rules regarding contest. You may receive a valuable award for your trouble. Address "The Happy Home, 360 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill. 42-44.

WOMAN ON MAN.

An Oregon Lady Teasts the Gentlemen—Fro Tells the Whole Story.

Mrs. Danway, of the New North-west at Salem, Oregon, "teasted" the gentlemen as follows:

"God bless 'em! They halve our joys, they double our sorrows, they treble our expenses, they quadruple our cares, they excite our magnanimity, they increase our self respect, they awake our enthusiasm, they arouse our affections, then control our property, and outmanoeuvre us in everything. This would be a dreary world without 'em. In fact, I may say without 'em it would not be much of a world anyhow. We love 'em and the dear beings can't help it; we control them and the precious fellows don't know it.

As husbands, they are always convenient, though not always on hand; as 'beasts, they are by no means 'matchless.' They are most agreeable victors; they are handy at state fairs, and indispensable at oyster saloons. They are splendid as escorts for some other fellow's wife or sister, and as friends they are far better than women. As our fathers they are inexpressibly grand. A man may be a failure in business, a wreck in constitution, not enough to boast of as a beauty, nothing as a legislator for woman's rights, and even not very brilliant as a member of the press; but if he is our father we overlook his shortcomings and cover his piousdilloes with the divine mantle as charity. Then, as our husbands, how we love to parade them as paragons. In the sublime language of the inspired poet:

"We'd lie for them.
We'd cry for them,
And if we could we'd fly for them,
We'd do anything but die for them."
—K.

The Methodist Church.

The annual examinations of the young men on probation for the Methodist Ministry took place on the 15th, 16th and 17th of this month. Candidates for this ministry are required to present certificate or other evidence of matriculation in a Canadian or other British university or its equivalent, after which they have to preach three years on circuits and pass an examination each year. These examinations are on literary, scientific, and theological subjects and are covered by 31 papers, and they are conducted by the chairman and other members of the examining board stationed within the bounds of the district. On account of the extensive territory covered by the Regina district examinations were held in the Methodist church here and at Prince Albert. The young men presenting themselves were: Joseph Robinson, of Boharm, 3rd year; F. J. Wooten, 2nd year; A. R. Robinson, of Kinistino, W. R. F. Brune, Eli Taylor, H. F. Galley and Albert Barker, for the 1st year, and wrote on the subjects assigned them by the following programme:

Hour.	First Day, May 29th.—Prayer Service at 9:30 A.M.	Second Day, May 30th.—Prayer Service at 9:30 A.M.	Third Day, May 31st.—Prayer Service at 9:30 A.M.

Besides this course of study and the three years of circuit work, all probationers have to attend college from two to four years, before they are ordained to the full work of the Methodist ministry.

Few Men Are Advised to Stay Away From Trail Creek, B. C.

THE TIMES is in receipt of a copy of the Trail Creek, B.C., News, of the 11th inst., through the kindness of Mr. J. G. Robertson, who lately removed from Moose Jaw to that place.

The following reproduced letter appears in the paper, marked, and at the bottom are written the words, "so say we—all of us."

Under the caption of "Wages at Roseland," the following appeared in the last issue of the Victoria Province:

To the Editor:—Having been up to Roseland for over three weeks, and having enquired in various lines what wages men were getting, I wish to state positively for the benefit of all workmen, and laborers in particular, that all these glowing accounts of lots of work and princely pay that appear in Vancouver and other Coast papers, are not correct. As an instance, the railroad company, which is running a narrow gauge railway from here to Trail, is only paying its men one dollar and seventy-five cents per day, and out of that they have to board themselves, so are really making, so one of them told me, only fifty cents per day, "the wages of an office boy." Now, if there are some fools who still want to work for "Chinese wages," or else starve in a place where everything is nearly double what it is on the Coast, let them come up at once without fail. Hoping this will save some poor men from coming up here on a fool's errand.

Canon.
Canon, April 21.—The weather has been very changeable here for the last two weeks, first warm and then cold and hot, but no less, a couple of big storms of the beautiful. The last one, on Saturday the 18th inst., was very heavy, so much so that it was quite inconvenient for the young men to go to see their best girls on Sunday.

There have been some accidents lately, such as getting stuck in the creek, breaking whistles and getting wet feet. One young man went to see his girl and when returning home got stuck in the creek and the house going away without the vehicle left the young couple sitting in the middle of the creek. How they got out and home without getting drowned is a mystery.

The long looked for cheques from the Moose Jaw creamery, the balance of last year's better sales, have arrived and are quite large.

William and Annie McBride were visiting Miss Robinson, of South street this week.

Mrs. James Candler has been laid up lately with neuritis, but is 'improving.

William Robinson has had his carriage repaired and it looks splendid.

R. J. and Miss McBride are visiting at Roseland ranch.

Wild geese are very plentiful at Pelican Lake.

Master Wesley Candler has obtained a situation for the summer with Benjamin Smith, of Pioneer.

Mr. Collins M. Yates has engaged with Alexander Wilson for the season.

Robert Tobin, formerly with A. McKenna has obtained a situation in the round house, Moose Jaw.

Newberry.
NEWBERRY, April 20.—As it is some time since Broncho Hunter wrote, and as he is supposed to be digging holes, I thought I would write you some of the events.

We have a school organized and the Newberry brothers have put the school house on the ground, and we expect school to start soon.

Ernest Lowe started the plough last week. Mrs. Lowe is ill of pleurisy. We hope to see her well again in a few days.

Thos. Spicer and family moved on the Rosedale ranch last week, and Wm. Harrison moved off.

Mr. Harrison has accepted a position with the Springbrook Ranching Co., we understand he is manager.

Mrs. Harrison is visiting for a few days with Mrs. Joe. Newberry.

G. F. Thomas has his new house nearly ready to move in. Now, get some one to keep it for you, G. F.!

Edwards, Pannas and some other sports were out at Rock Lake last Tuesday night and they caught a blanket of white cod and were glad to get home before Wednesday night.

Joe. Urton had the misfortune to lose a valuable mare and foal last week.

Mr. A. Grayson has taken his stock out to his ranch, where he has cover-felling spruce and plenty of hay.

Misses Joe. Kany and Joe. Urton have brought their stock in from the ranch. The farmers back north can see that the south is the place where the people all live in comfort and grace.

Now, Mr. Editor, will you please let me know through your valuable paper what Co.'s hands are subject to taxation in Range 26, and are all Co. hands exempt from Range 26?

DISSOLVED.

Prorogation of probably the longest parliament that the Dominion of Canada has ever experienced took place yesterday and dissolution of the House followed to day. At this distance no particulars have reached us, as to what took place. The session has been a long one, as above stated, and a comparatively unfruitful one; for what has been done, beyond passing the Estimates and the passage of a few private bills of no very great importance? Parliament assembled on Jan. 2nd and on the fifth there transpired the disruption in the cabinet, seven of its members bolted on account of non-confidence in their Premier, Sir Mackenzie Bowell. After a lapse of a week or more of time, Sir Charles Tupper, who had come to Canada from his post as High Commissioner for Canada in London, sought a seat and was elected to the Commons in a constituency in Cape Breton. In the mean time six of the bolters determined to return to the fold and Sir Mackenzie was enabled to form a ministry with Sir Charles Tupper as Secretary of State and leader of the House. Then the Remedial Bill was taken up and it is well known how every effort was made and every nerve strained to pass this measure. It was pointed out in the House that the Bill was unconstitutional. The Bill to be constitutional must needs have been exactly on the lines of the Remedial Order; and that is precisely what it was not. Altogether the whole thing was a precious muddle and in our opinion its fate could hardly have been otherwise than as it turned out.

THE COMING CONTEST.

Politics are being pretty freely discussed by local politicians and upholders of the different political parties. It must be remembered that Canada has now three distinct parties—if not four. In the North-West Territories and particularly in West Assiniboia, very little is heard of the dissentant, Conservative wing, viz., the McCarthyites. The constituency has, however, all it can handle in the Tories, Grits, and Patrons, and the "signs of the times" seem to point out that the seat shall be contested by a representative of each party. At a thoroughly representative convention of the Patrons of Industry, held in Regina about a year ago, Mr. J. K. McInnis was chosen from a number of able candidates to be the standard bearer of that party in the contest; and quite recently the three county lodges within the riding have re-endorsed Mr. McInnis' candidature. That gentleman also has declared through the columns of his paper and elsewhere, that it is his intention to stay by his original promise and to endeavor by all the means at his command to win the fight.

Mr. Davin, who has always held the seat, was also chosen last year by convention to again uphold the Conservative banner. It is also supposed that Mr. Davin will be the party's standard bearer this year, nothing to the contrary having been given out. Mr. Hitchcock, who last year was chosen to contest the seat in the interests of the Liberals, some weeks ago, for business reasons, withdrew from the position of candidate. The Liberals, however, hold a convention in Moose Jaw to-morrow to select a candidate; so it still looks as though there is to be a three cornered fight for the seat.

IMPORTANCE OF THE BUTTER TRADE.

Canada, and especially the North-West, is certainly very much interested in the butter question. It has been proven that this particular part of Canada—the Territories—cannot depend with success upon cereal farming, but must pursue mixed farming methods. A great deal has appeared in these columns of late about butter and creameries, but not too much by any means when we take into consideration the fact that upon this important industry the success of Western Canada, in a very marked degree depends. A hundred pounds of butter is carried by the railroads and ships for a much smaller sum than a hundred pounds of wheat or even cheese, and besides butter is a sure crop while wheat is not. The most important question, however, is a market for our butter after it is manufactured. We gave our readers some weeks ago a synopsis of a report of Prof. Robertson in which the butter manufactured at the Moose Jaw Creamery came in for a share of praise. Once any manufactured article has obtained a good name there is sure to follow a demand for it, but of course the standard of quality must be maintained. The Star of the 13th inst. has to say as follows on this subject:

The people of Eastern Ontario seem to be taking a new interest in the butter business. The Brockville Recorder says that many men are forsaking the manufacture of cheese and going in for butter. "The low price of cheese and the fact that quite a lot of old stock is still in sight, is accountable for many dairymen embarking in the manufacture of butter this spring." It says by way of explanation. But there is a quite sufficient reason for the diversion of Canadian industry in the butter line contained in the magnificent opportunity to gain a profitable hold on the British market. The Kingston News, another journal of the Eastern Ontario group, presses this argument home on its constituency persistently. It shakes the figures of last year's butter purchases in Britain before their eyes and asks why Canada should take so low a place. The figures of Britain's import of butter for '85 from the different sources of supply were as follows:

Denmark	$5,948,463
France	2,444,734
Sweden	1,644,111
Australasia	1,424,585
Germany	565,093
Holland	639,328
United States	271,770
Canada	156,401

These are good figures to gain from. Within the last year or two Australia and the United States have made striking advances, and they have at least, as many difficulties as we to overcome in marketing their butter in Great Britain. There is no reason whatever why Canadians should not get a large share of this trade, if they studied the peculiarities of the British demand as closely as they have in the case of cheese. Some attempt in this line has been made of late, and the effort has been awarded with success. The Kingston News quotes a number of old country opinions, which show that Canadian butter is securing a better reputation among "home" buyers than it once had. A large Glasgow firm for example says:

"The quality has been an improvement on anything received of late years, and while the flavor has not been so delicate and attractive as the finest Danish, yet it must be acknowledged that the Canadian butter has been on the whole a creditable production."

The criticisms are that our butter is sometimes too salt; and sometimes too much moisture is left in; that the whey left in goes sour and spoils the flavor of the butter, and that it is not properly packed. A large West of England firm says on this latter point that they "are convinced that Canadian butter all round would realize from one to two cents per pound more if packed in boxes, and they say this as the largest importers of Canadian butter in Great Britain and after extensive experience during the last two years. These are the features of the British market that our butter makers and shippers will study with profit; and the dairy may yet produce an export trade as lusty as its natural yokel's from the cheese factory. Our great Canadian cow may speedily conquer the market from which the Long Bill would hope to exclude her."

Mr. John Hawkes, of Whitewood, has resigned the secretaryship of the Eastern Assiniboia Central Liberal-Conservative Association, and the president has appointed Mr. H. A. J. Macdonnell to perform the duties of the office till such time as the association meets.

Sir William Van Horne, on the 10th of the present month, wrote the following letter on the needs of Canada at the present time:

"In my opinion the most pressing needs of the country are: 1st. A vigorous immigration policy, to be carried out by a special commission. 2nd. A first-class Atlantic mail and passenger steamship service. 3rd. The protection of the interests of the Dominion in the mining districts of Southern British Columbia."

A final statement from Mr. and Mrs. Ballington Booth why they left and will stay out of the Salvation Army is published in New York. The General, it is asserted, was hostile to American ideas, and did not consult the Commandant in matters affecting his command. Another reason was the General's suggestion to annex certain American districts, in an "Army" sense, to Canada. This was refused, though Ballington offered to assist the Canadian organization by money grants, etc. The General persisted, saying he was bound to break down any national feeling that existed. At present Toronto headquarters manage the Army in North Dakota, Montana and North Washington. Finally it is declared the breach cannot, because of allegations made, be healed.

The Edmonton Herald Co. has disposed of the business, good will and plant of the Herald newspaper to Mr. A. Johnson, who has managed the business for some time. In its parting announcement, signed by Mr. J. J. Young, the Company states among other things, the following:

"Although started less than a year ago The Herald has met with a measure of public support, which though not conspicuously enthusiastic at first, has steadily increased until today the paper receives a good share of the business of the town. The Herald is not in favor of monopolies, either in the journalistic or in any other line, and the satisfactory support accorded it during the past year encourages it to believe that the people of Edmonton are similarly favorable to legitimate competition. Having never been in the habit of blowing its own horn The Herald may be pardoned on the present occasion for drawing attention to the fact that no town of the same population in the Canadian West produces a paper with so much telegraphic, local and general news, or of a better mechanical or general appearance. The present management has used every effort to keep the paper up to a standard that no citizen of Edmonton would have cause to apologize for. The increasing encouragement received indicates that our efforts have met with at least some degree of appreciation."

Baseball.

On Thursday, April 9th, a meeting was held to re-organize the Union School Baseball club. The following officers were elected: Hon. President, T. B. Baker; President, A. M. Fenwick; Captain, W. A. Munns; Sec'y, Treas., W. McWilliams; Committee of Management, J. Haigh, J. Simington, J. McLean, H. Porter and W. A. Munns. All communications addressed to the secretary-treasurer will be gladly received.

Progressiveness.
To-morrow, Sunday, afternoon, April 12, at 3:30 o'clock, there will be a meeting of the members of the Board of Trade of Trail in Bragdon & Co.'s store. It is greatly desired that every member of the Board will be present, as there is much of interest that will come before that meeting. Among the many things that will be discussed is the purchase of a lot and erecting a fine Board of Trade building. Don't forget the hour and place of meeting. —Trail Creek, B.C., News.

A Disgraceful Scene.

The present session of Parliament has been the most extraordinary one in the history of Canada.

The treachery of the Cabinet Ministers to their leader and to one another has been enough to degrade for years to come all idea of official honor.

The members who have been voting against the wishes of their constituencies and against the dictates of their conscience, if they have any, have startled the country almost into disbelief of decency in public life.

The attempted coercion of the House into passing a bill to coerce a province is an attempt at tyranny previously unheard of in this century in any civilized country.

All this has been done in the name of religion. Yesterday's brawl, in which Dr. Ferguson, of Leeds and Grenville—one of Tupper's henchmen—went over to Dr. Sproule, one of the most able and respectable men in the House, and an anti-remedialist, and in a stream of the most blasphemous language, cursed a man who was only doing his duty, was the climax of the infamous episodes of the session.

The coercionists have been attempting to read such men as Dr. Sproule out of the Conservative party, but it is going considerably too far when they call upon God to damn their opponents and in a loud voice curse them for boodlers and fools in the chief legislative chamber of Canada. The result of having a political pope of course must be excommunications, bulls, etc. We are getting them all, principally the "bulls."

This seems to be the Tupperian idea of government, and unfortunately some of the chief workers of the Government party though far from Ottawa have become contaminated with the idea that their leader is superior to all laws, and even to the Creator himself. Last week one of the most popular Conservatives in Toronto, who remains attached to the Government faction, gave a dinner to over three score of the old party workers, who could be counted upon to do anything that the government dictates. The speeches were all eulogistic of Sir Charles Tupper, Bart., and endorsed his attitude of reading such men out of the party as refused to obey his behests. The climax was reached, however, if report be true, when a man who occupies a responsible position in a government institution and has had much to do with educational affairs in this city, stood up and said, "Sir Charles Tupper as the leader of our party has the right to read God out of the party if he sees fit." This appalled even the stalwart Tupperians, but I have not heard that any protest was publicly entered by any of them, though one gentleman arose and in a general way stated that he was not in favor of remedial legislation and could not endorse many of the things that had been said.

This little incident might have been unworthy of publication had it not been for yesterday's scene in the House of Commons, when it was made evident that the coercionist party has abandoned itself to the wildest and most inexcusable policy of intimidation.

They seem to have handed over all power in heaven and earth to Sir Charles Tupper, forgetting that neither in this world nor in the other they have any title to authority or to make a transfer of it to any man. They can make the deed but they cannot deliver the goods.—S. in Toronto Star.

The April number of the locomotive firemen's magazine, published by the brotherhood at Peoria, Illinois (W. S. Carter, editor) has been laid on our table. It is a neatly printed journal full of up-to-date reading matter. Its articles afford information alike interesting to railway men and the general public. Its leading article on the railway motive power of the future is ably written. We read it with pleasure and profit, as also the article on "A Sub-Marine Boat." Its illustrations are also clear, interesting and instructive. It is a journal which should be in the hands of all who take an interest in the advancement of science, especially pertaining to locomotion. A. McAuley is the local agent. The subscription price is $1.00 per year. We understand it is the intention of the firemen at this point to establish a subordinate lodge at no distant date. We are no reason, with the large number of firemen located here, why such a lodge should not be successfully inaugurated and carried on.

A number of Kemptville young ladies have formed a club for the purpose of self protection while on the streets of that place. In our report last week of proceedings of the spring sittings of the Supreme Court, the case of McLean v. Bradshaw & Spicer was left out. Mr. W. J. Nelson was counsel for plaintiff and Mr. Wm. Grayson appeared for the defendants. Some amusement was created in this case by the repeated reference to a cowbell which had been in dispute. Judgment reserved.

The Farmer's Advocate, with commendable enterprise, has recently sent out a picture of a group of noted thoroughbred and trotting horses entitled "Canada's Glory." We were pleased to get a copy and intend to have it framed, for besides taking a great interest ourselves in horses, some of the group are well known to us; and also, the picture is really artistic.

On Councillor Grayson being asked this morning by THE TIMES man if he had any news re creamery, he handed over the following letter which speaks for itself:—J. H. Grayson, Esq., Moose Jaw, N. W. T. Dear Sir,—Your telegram has been received. I am sending Mr. Moorhouse to Moose Jaw early next week. I think the creamery can be ready for receiving milk and butter-making within a few days after he arrives. I am Yours very truly, JAS. W. ROBERTSON, Agricultural and Dairy Commissioner.

Royal Templars.

If a stranger could have gained for a moment, an entrance into Russell Hall on Tuesday evening last he would have been able to form some idea of the strength and importance of the Moose Jaw Branch of this powerful order. One hundred and twenty-five members occupied the Council chamber, the occasion being an "at home" and supper, given by the members in honor of Past Councillor R. W. Timmins, who leaves this week for the Kootenay District. Mr. Timmins is one of the charter members of the Council. Select Councillor Nelson occupied the chair and every officer was in his or her place. After the Council had been opened in due form Mrs. Jas. Ostrander was raised to the degree.

Under the head of general business arrangements were made for the holding of the fourth Silver Medal Contest on the 5th of May.

A transfer card was granted to Jno. Green, now at Vancouver, B.C. A travelling card was also granted R. W. Timmins.

The Rev. Mr. Campbell, who now temporarily occupies the Presbyterian pulpit, and who is an old Royal Templar, pursuant to request, will preach a Temperance sermon in that church on Sunday evening next. The members of the Council decided to meet at Russell Hall on that evening at 6:30 sharp, and march to the Presbyterian church in a body.

The business of the Council concluded, during the balance of the evening the members ate, drank and were merry. The most elaborate arrangement had been made by a special committee for the occasion. In a few moments the Council chamber was converted into a banquet room. Everything was in readiness for the transformation and when the cloth was spread, the table was filled with oysters—raw, stewed and fried—and all that a curious palate could wish.

The Rev. Mr. Campbell occupied the head of the table, with Select Councillor Nelson and Rev. Mr. Ferrier on his left, and Past Councillor Timmins, Mr. Enoch Colpitts and the Rev. Mr. Robinson on his right. Around the table were assembled 125 Royal Templars. After the repast was over, a half hour was pleasantly spent "across the walnut and the coffee." One and all seemed to heartily enjoy themselves.

An interesting programme of music and song was next rendered.

The Templar orchestra, consisting of Reg. A. McCall (piano); John Saunders (violin and flute); Bie. McLeod (violin); Walter Simington (guitar); contributed much to the evening's amusement.

Miss N. McDonald and Master Jas. Simington, one of her pupils, creditably rendered a duet on the Featherstone piano, kindly loaned by Mr. Bogue for the occasion.

Other members contributed to the programme. This over, the Select Councillor spoke of the reason for the festive scene and expressed his regret that the Council was about to lose one of its most active and energetic workers. In the name of the Council he wished Mr. Timmins every success in the gold regions of British Columbia.

Past Councillor Timmins fittingly and feelingly replied. He was sorry to sever his connection with a Council in which the happiest moments of his life had been spent, and at whose altar had been rendered that sacred promise to abstain from the use of all that could intoxicate, an obligation which he had faithfully kept.

His remarks of some length were listened to with wrapt attention by the members and when the speaker finished all rose and sang with spirit, "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." At mid night the chain of fraternity was formed and the loving links that bind Royal Templars as one united farewell was given to the past Councillor.

"Should Old Acquaintance be Forgotten" brought a most pleasing evening's diversion to an end.

Maple Creek.

(From Our Own Correspondent.) MAPLE CREEK, April 20.—Mr. John Coule has returned from a visit to Ontario and has gone out to his ranch.

Our new Presbyterian minister preached his first sermon here on Sunday last. He shows great talent and it is hoped the congregation may be able to retain him.

On Saturday, when No. 2 express arrived the Conductor handled over a tramp to Corpl. Bortley. The fellow managed, however, to escape some time after, he was recaptured by three of the N. W. M. P.

Mr. John McKenzie is about to embark into the house painting and decorating business. We wish him success.

Mr. P. Olum has made arrangements with Mrs. Dunn, late of the American Hotel, Medicine Hat, to take charge of the dining department of the Commercial Hotel. The duties at the N. W. M. P. barracks has been success in every way. Much credit for the success of the affair is due to Sergt. Major Tucker.

On Sunday evening, the 5th inst., as the people of our town were comfortably seated in church listening to an excellent sermon a cry of fire was raised, and it was soon learned that Mr. Jean Claustra's house was ablaze. Some of the gallant riders of the plains, who were attending service, accompanied by their best risks, rushed to the rescue. The fire was soon extinguished.

The Rebecca Mackenzie company visited our town last week and were much admired. J. O. Beesley has commenced hauling stone for the risk that he intends erecting this summer.

Boham.

BOHAM, April 23.—I have been watching your correspondent, have seen the shuffling feet of St. Hubert, the sly line of Wandering Willie and the misce of Observer, and heard one long howl of agony from the Old Wives Lake Coyote and think I can scarcely make a worse attempt, so here goes, hit or miss.

The Laird has discovered another source of revenue, namely enforcing the law. The latest is false imprisonment. Timmins also can compute the damages. Moral: Go for the Menominites, my Laird, but beware how you approach the little Irishman.

Owing to the unprecedented snow storm there are very few animals at large, consequently business is not good.

Mr. Elsum is moving his house to the sunny south.

Our mail carrier started for town last Saturday and got somewhat mixed. Finally he struck a fresh trail which landed him back home after an hours hard driving. Carrier No. 2 then started with the same result.

Mr. William Beattie, of Buffalo Lake, was storm-stayed in the village on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradshaw spent a few days at Grayburn farm last week visiting their adopted daughter, Maggie.

We understand the Pascoe Bros. are again tendering for the milk route. It is to be hoped that their tender will be low enough to secure the contract, as they gave the least of satisfaction last season.

The inhabitants of Pascoeville held a round up last week and had all the cattle dehorned. Hopkins and Thomson were the experts in charge, but the Laird came in at the head of the band.

Last Sunday after service our Mr. Robinson proposed to organize a Sunday School by writing the names of all the fit and proper persons for superintendent upon the blackboard. The dye was cast and F. W. Green was elected, by the withdrawal of the former superintendent, F. Fowler. The hour being late and some being in a hurry to retire, the meeting adjourned.
